I understand there is an inherent risk involved in participation in equine sports and activities. I therefore agree on behalf of myself and my heirs, personal representatives, guardians and assigns, to release from all liability and waive all claims against the Central New York Horse Club, or its officers, committees, the property owners or facilities, members, and guests. My aforesaid release from liability and waiver of all claims includes any and all claims for injury (including death), or illness to me or any damage to my property in connection with this event, my use of the property or the surrounding area. I hereby agree for myself and my representatives to be bound by this, and participate at my own risk.
